Art Rejections:

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shoaib et al, U.S. pat. No. 7,161,914.

Per claim 1, Shoaib discloses a method of operating location update/handover for a mobile device comprising:

a) providing a plurality of update messages (first, second, etc.,) from one or more location servers to a mobile device via a base station wherein the first update message indicates a first type of message for the first update message (see col 2, lines 1-12); and

Art Unit: 2454

b) determining a priority associated with the update message based upon the type of message for the update message (see col 8, line 65 - col 9, line 38).

Shoaib does not explicitly teach receiving the update messages in the location server from network gateway.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to providing network information from network gateway to the location server because it would have enabled the location server to provide such information to the mobile device (see col 2, lines 1-12).

Per claims 2-3, Shoaib teaches evaluating messages/criteria for triggering predefined actions ignoring/dropping and accepting requests, etc., (see col 11, lines 24-65).

Per claims 4-23, Shoaib's teachings encompass all claim limitations.

Claims 24-46 are similar in scope as that of claims 1-23 and hence are rejected for the same rationale set forth above for claims 1-23.
